

AePost - Software

AePost is a post-processing software used to process data previously acquired by AeSystem systems. Among its main functions, the following stand out:

App developed by AEROLASER.

Data Integrity Check.

Calculation of point clouds, applying for this the orientations obtained by the inertial system and calibration angles.

Conversion of formats.

Extracting photo events.

Generation of geoid models for use in inertial calculus.